Syllabus

Course Description:

This course will provide teachers with the opportunity to visit and explore on their own four outstanding Bay area educational and cultural centers of interest to teachers and students of any grade level. Teachers tour the Golden Gate Conservatory of Flowers and the Fitzgerald Marine Reserve in Moss Beach, and your choice of two additional sites in the Greater San Francisco Bay Area.

Students will benefit as teachers bring these fieldtrip exploration experiences, cultural activities, community focus and other ideas into their curriculum.

Course Objectives:

1. Teachers will learn what educational programs and other opportunities are available for their students at four outstanding educational museums.
2. By participating in tours of the exhibits in the selected four museums, teachers will further their knowledge of art culture, history, science, natural history, agriculture, etc., that can be taken back to the classroom and incorporated into the curriculum.
3. Teachers will gain the knowledge to plan and teach meaningful art lessons and activities for their grade level.
4. Teachers will be able to provide field trip information for parents and staff and plan meaningful fieldtrips that enrich the curriculum of grade level taught.

Course Requirements:

1. Enroll online by clicking here where you can download the course syllabus for San Francisco Bay Area. You can also get more information by attending area summer course orientation meeting. Click here for dates, times and locations.
2. You will tour four museums/cultural centers. Two required visitations include: the Golden Gate Conservatory of Flowers and Fitzgerald Marine Reserve in Moss Beach. The other two are your choice from the list of Bay Area attractions provided below.
3. You will choose four of the seven museums' "exhibits", which is listed on the syllabus. Visit them at your convenience (you have nine-months to complete this course). Be prepared to take notes. At the completion of each tour, have the Documentation Page of the packet stamped and dated by the museum receptionist, or if this is not available attach some form of entrance receipt instead.
4. Complete all coursework, including the Evaluation Form below.

Note: It is advisable to call ahead for the days/hours that these venues are open to the public, and for the admission costs as they occasionally change. For some venues, it is also recommended that you call ahead to request a docent-guided tour. A camera may be needed to record some sites visited. Evidence as proof of the visit must be attached to the coursework, such as a photograph, a stamp/signature from a docent, a brochure/ticket, etc.

Instructions for coursework submission:

Written Assignments

Your coursework should be created in a document that can be emailed directly to the instructor. Coursework should be typed, double-spaced with size 12 font. Reflection write-ups should be one or more pages in length and address every question in the coursework. Pictures and documents may be scanned and posted along with your Word or PDF file of written assignments. Label everything carefully with the assignment number and make sure that your name and email address are easy to locate.

IMPORTANT - Camera images can be very large files. Save the images in lower definition resolution in order to keep document file sizes down for emailing.

For assistance email jherz@dominicancaonline.com

EMAIL your completed documents to the instructor's email listed on the syllabus you are working from.

SITE INFORMATION

Golden Gate Park Conservatory of Flowers

The Conservatory of Flowers has become one of San Francisco's most popular destinations and has welcomed more than one million visitors. The elegant, rehabilitated building continues to be recognized as an icon of San Francisco's Victorian past and has garnered countless awards for high achievement in historical preservation. Floral displays and special exhibitions inspire visitors with a renewed appreciation for the wonders of the natural world. The Conservatory of Flowers staff and volunteers are extremely proud of the popular elementary school guided tour program, which fills to capacity every year. The Conservatory features four permanent galleries, each of which is painstakingly cared for by Nursery Specialists. Plants are rotated into the galleries as they bloom so visitors can always expect to see the plants in our collection at their peak.

Golden Gate Park, 100 John F Kennedy Drive, San Francisco (415)
666-7001

Hours: Tuesday - Sunday: 10 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. (Last entry is at 4:00 p.m).

Monday: Closed

The Conservatory is open on Memorial Day, 4th of July, Labor Day, Christmas Eve (Until 2 p.m) and New Year's Eve.

Admission: Check seasonal hours and pricing at www.conservatoryofflowers.org

Fitzgerald Marine Reserve Moss Beach

The Reserve is open during daylight hours but the life in the tide pools can only be seen at low tides, below +1.0 feet. So, before you come to the Reserve, check your newspaper, an online tide guide, or a tide book which is available at marinas, boating or fishing shops. Please know that the tides at Moss Beach occur about one hour earlier than listed for the Golden Gate. Tide pooling is best done just before and just after low tide. Be sure to bring a windbreaker, a sweater and a pair of dry shoes. Check the map to locate the Reserve.

Any low tide below +1.0 feet will provide an array of tide pools with a variety of plants, and marine invertebrates. The lowest minus tides are not necessary for an exciting experience but remember, time and patience is needed to see any marine life in action. On low tide weekends, roving naturalists are frequently out on the reef to help you learn more about the creatures living on the reef. A Harbor Seal exhibit, staffed by naturalists, may be available at the time of your visit.
